

Stratton Mountain, VT

February 3-5, 2023

$659.00/pp Double Occ.

Come join your LSC friends on a journey back in time. Over the years, there has been much talk about how fun our old bus trips have been. If you enjoyed those trips—you need to get in on this one! This is a late Friday departure trip so most won't need to use vacation. There will also be no movies on this bus ride to Vermont. We want everyone to hang out, perhaps have a beverage, and socialize with your other travelers. We will be in Vermont before you know it and by then you should know everyone on the bus. We will have some fun music playing and we will encourage all to bring something tasty to share (food or beverage) on the bus. (if memory serves - red beet eggs are a bad idea on a moving bus).

Besides a fun ride up, we will try to organize some mountain meeting places so everyone can connect and have opportunities to ski & board with others in the group whether you make that morning first chair or crawl out of your room at the crack of noon. Of course, we will be meeting après ski for a post mountain debrief and a chance to brag of your alpine conquests.

For those non-skiing and non-boarding travelers in the group, there are always plenty of daytime activities to keep you out of trouble. The mountain village at Stratton is second to none.

Stratton Mountain is part of the Ikon Pass Network. If you are without an Ikon Pass, a two-day lift ticket is just $290.00.

Mountain Features:

Stratton Mountain, with its 61 year history, is one of the premier ski destinations in all of New England. Stratton boasts the highest peak in southern Vermont and a vertical drop of over 2000'. With 11 lifts, including (4) 6-packs, and 180" average snowfall, there is plenty to keep you entertained and more than enough to make you sleep at night.

Did I mention the village? Stratton has one of the best mountain villages in the East and its just a short walk away. So many dining and shopping opportunities, there is no excuse for empty bellies or full wallets.
